SHOW RULES

No Stress! Our show is meant to be a fun, no stress introductory level event so please come and enjoy it. This is part of a family fun event. No harsh handling or verbal abuse or the handler may be asked to leave the show. dogs actfully reserve the right to refuse entry to any dogs which are believed not to be in a fit state to participate.

Dogs on leads please except in the Agility rings for safety. There is access to fields in the top corner of the car park at Coombe Cellars Pub or to the estuary beach via the gate at the bottom of the field.

Bitches in season may be brought to the show ground but must be kept well away from the ring areas. No mating of bitches in the venue vicinities.

Dogs known to be aggressive may not be brought to the event.

Dogs in cars on hot days: Please ensure your dog has shade, ventilation and plenty of fresh water. If your dog is found to be at risk, forcible entry to your vehicle may be necessary without liability for any damage caused.

Showing order - Classes will run in order of the schedule. It is the handlers responsibility to be present at the ringside when their class is called.

Please Pick up after your dog – anyone found not picking up their dog's poops anywhere on Hearn Field may be asked to leave the show.

Infectious Diseases: handlers shall not bring to the Show any dog which has contracted or been knowingly exposed to any infectious or contagious disease during the 21 days prior to the Show, or which may be coughing contagiously or suffering from a visible condition which adversely affects its health or welfare.

Entries are 'at your own Risk': all entries are at your own risk and accepted on the basis that handlers and owners understand and fully accept the risks to themselves and their dogs of participating in canine events and expressly absolve dogsactfully, the show officials and the venue owners of all liabilities.

Treats in the ring – may be carried in the ring, but no crumbly treats please for obvious reasons!
